

Take a hot beverage to a Salvation Army bell ringer.

GIVE DIAPERS

Leave diapers at diaper stations in stores

Locate an Angel Tree in your area, or give a donation at your grocery store check-out, or drop a donation in the bell-ringer's bucket outside select stores in your area.

Make homemade Christmas Cards and take to Seniors in a local nursing home.

Tape some quarters to a pop or vending machine in the waiting areas of the hospital, with a note that says, "This treat is on me!"

There are sooooo many ways to help deployed soldiers, their families, soldiers returning home, and wounded warriors with deployment kits, care packages, movies, books, and games for military libraries, gifts for kids, family fun days, memory boxes, photo books, phone cards, a warm welcome home, career helps and opportunities, and soooo many other wonderful things.

Clean for someone

Clean a sibling's room, help someone at school with a mess

Say to every teacher, policeman, soldier, fireman, grocery store worker, etc. you meet today.

Donate canned goods to (your city) Food Pantry
