

Stuff an old unused backpack with socks, snacks, gloves, and personal hygiene products and leave for a homeless man under a bridge.

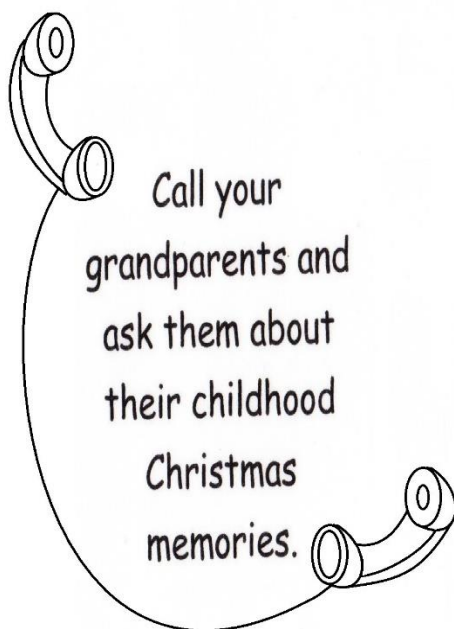

Put quarters in a washing machine at the Laundromat

(a public one or one at an apartment complex)

Leave happy notes around town (shopping carts, post office, dressing rooms, restaurants, etc).

Make a busy bag for a family with young children and give at church or a restaurant.

Call your grandparents and ask them about their childhood Christmas memories.

Say thank you when you see military service members, police officers, firemen, and Border Patrol.

Decorate pillowcases and take them to a local children's hospital.

Decorate pens

and take them to a SECRETARY or RECEPTIONIST where people borrow them.

Fill one of mom's old, unwanted Purses with feminine hygiene products, socks, mittens, and snacks and give to a homeless woman